Plaintiffs,

vs.

Chang's Dynasty LLC and Alan Chang,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2:23-cv-02040-ART-BNW

Honorable Anne R. Traum

Magistrate Judge Brenda Weksler

ORDER GRANTING

JOINT MOTION TO STAY CASE FOR THIRTY DAYS PENDING
SETTLEMENT DISCUSSIONS

1 Plaintiffs The Spearmint Rhino Companies Worldwide, Inc. and K-Kel, Inc.
 2 (“Plaintiffs”) and Defendants Chang’s Dynasty LLC and Alan Chang (“Defendants”)
 3 (collectively, “the Parties”) hereby respectfully and jointly move the Court for a thirty (30) day
 4 stay of proceedings pursuant to FRCP 26, LR IA 6-1 and LR 26-3. A stay is warranted
 5 because the Parties have expressed an intent to resolve this litigation pending between them
 6 and have reached a settlement in principle.

7 The Parties submit that a 30-day stay in this litigation would assist the Parties to focus
 8 their efforts on preparing a final settlement agreement incorporating the terms of the settlement
 9 in principle. The Parties are optimistic that they will be able to work together in good faith to 10 reach a final agreement. In the event a final settlement agreement is not reached, the Parties
 11 will jointly submit a proposed amended scheduling order at the conclusion of the stay.
 12 Accordingly, the Parties hereby jointly request a stay of the present litigation for thirty (30)
 13 days in the interest of the Parties’ and judicial efficiency while discussions continue toward 14 reaching a final settlement agreement. Good cause exists to grant this request as the Parties do
 15 not seek the stay requested herein for delay but instead seek to stay all proceedings in the 16 interest of efficiency and judicial economy.

6 ORDER

7 It is ordered that good cause exists to grant the parties request to stay the case for 30
8 days. In the event a final settlement agreement is not reached, the parties shall jointly submit a 9 proposed amended scheduling order no later than Monday, May 12, 2025.
